

Are mental health issues affecting your prospects?

If you are struggling to cope with everyday life, we can help you:

- Manage your circumstances
- Regain your independence
- Get into work, volunteering or education

How we can help

If you are not working and feel as though you are living with a mental health condition or if life is getting on top of you, our free Aspirations service can provide support.

We'll help you regain independence and live a life where mental health or negative feelings don't stand in your way.

Aspirations can help you to:

- rediscover your confidence
- find ways to cope with your mental health & wellbeing
- feel less isolated and become more social
- get into work, volunteering or education.

Whatever your circumstances, we won't judge you. What we discuss will remain confidential.
